

AIA Arizona 2010 Photography Competition Submission Requirements

1. For purposes of judging all submissions all images shall be submitted digitally. Work that was created on film shall be scanned for the judging.
2. All images are to be formatted with a long dimension of seven (7) inches at 150 dpi in JPEG format.
3. Images may be enhanced (exposure, white balance, etc.), however manipulated photos (adding new colors or objects, etc.) will not be acceptable and may be disqualified at the discretion of the Jury.
4. The file naming standard for all submissions shall be as follows: First Name – Last Name Number.jpeg

Example: john-doe-1.jpeg

5. Submissions shall be sent or hand delivered to the AIA-Arizona Office by 12:00 noon on Friday, April 2, 2010 on a CD labeled with the photographer's name. Please note that entrant's names will not be available to the jury during judging.
6. The top 15 photos will be selected for professional printing and framing. At that time, original files or film transparencies will be requested to achieve the highest quality of printing. Images will be printed with a long dimension of 24 inches.
7. The 15 images selected will be announced on May 1, 2010. All original images shall be returned to the author upon completion of the printing.
8. Winning images will be displayed at the AIA Arizona office through the month of June and may also be displayed through the summer.
9. All winning images will be on display at the AIA Arizona Awards Gala on September 25, 2010 at the Phoenix Art Museum and the top three winners will be announced at that time. Please call AIA Arizona at 602-252-4200 with questions or visit www.aia-arizona.org.

I hereby give AIA Arizona permission to use the images described in this submission. The images can be used, free of charge, for promotional purposes. I understand that AIA Arizona will not release images to third parties, except to those companies contracted to produce promotional and/or advertising material. All CD's may be kept on file and will be considered for use at any time unless an end date is provided below. I further understand that every effort will be made to supply a photo credit each time an image is used, but that in some editorial cases it is not always possible. AIA Arizona will not be held liable for images lost or damaged during shipping.
